USFCU wants you to open an account and start taking advantage of the benefits of belonging to a credit union; therefore we are offering free membership sign-ups at different locations in East Harlem.

From primary financial needs like savings and checking accounts to long-term decisions such as mortgages, USFCU offers the resources and products needed to fit any lifestyle. With little to no fees, low interest rate loans, and specialty savings accounts such as SAFE (for members with no social security or tax identification number), we're firmly prepared to serve the underserved in the East Harlem community. If interested in having the credit union come to your place of employment for membership sign-ups or a community function within your neighborhood, contact Robin Carroll at (212) 828-6060 or email at rcarroll@unionsett.org. Sign-ups are being offered year round.
